NOTES:

1. Please be advised that AMC flights are subject to change without NOTICE. All scheduled AMC flights for the workday will be announced on the Passenger Service voice recording at 65-6280-0624. However, it is advisable to contact our Passenger Service Office the day prior during office hours to request the latest flight information. The flight information is based on the most recent flight information that is available through OFFICIAL AMC sources.
2. If a Duty Passenger fails to check in by the Duty Standby Roll Call time, the duty passenger's seat may be reassigned to a lower priority passenger in accordance with AMC regulations.
3. If you desire to sign up for Space-A using e-mail, please send your request to the Passenger Service email address and "cc" the Air Terminal Manager. Alternatively, you may sign up for Space-a via fax. When you send a Space-a request by email or fax, please print out a copy and present it a Passenger Service Representative at the time you arrive at Paya Lebar.
4. If you have any passenger service or AMC flight related questions; please call the Passenger Service Office. The Passenger Terminal operating hours varies daily to accommodate the AMC flight schedule. During "off-duty" hours, pertinent AMC flight information will be available on the Passenger Service voice recording. Typical Passenger Terminal operating hours are as follows: Monday thru Friday from 0700 to 1900 and Saturday from 0700 to 1300. Passenger Terminal is closed on Sundays and Singapore Public Holidays. As a last resort, you may call the Deputy Terminal Manager at 65-9660-0043 or the Air Terminal Manager at 65-9862-5262.
